CRITERION I – CURRICULAR ASPECTS

1.1 – Curriculum Planning and Implementation

1.1.1 – Institution has the mechanism for well planned curriculum delivery and documentation. Explain in 500 words

Academic calendar is prepared by IQAC every year based on the timeframe provided by the university. Monthly planner is also prepared with all the activities to be performed during the month. The college frames Timetable for all UG and PG courses based upon the papers (subjects) allotted including hours for Library, Digital Library, Seminar, Swayam, Mentor, tutorial, booster and Remedial hours. Allotment of papers (subjects) to the Teachers done by respective Head of the Department. Lesson Plan for each papers (subjects) is scheduled before the start of each semester by the respective teachers as per the hours allotted. The teachers complete the papers (subjects) curriculum based upon the syllabus and scheme provided by Bharathiar University. The faculty completes the syllabus within the schedule planned in the academic calendar. Chalk and talk method, PPT classes using LCD projector are followed. Teachers also provide class notes and other related study materials, prescribed as reference by the university. Online quiz using the app Kahoot is used. The assignments and seminars are given in Google Classroom and the students are asked to upload the assignments and seminars through Google Classroom for which marks are assigned. Seminars from the syllabus are given to PG students as microteaching. Animated videos are shown to understand the concept easily. The Library has updated Textbooks of each discipline and also other resources such as e-books, e-journals and journal copies of respective discipline. The college has registered under N- List, NPTEL and Delnet, e-resources for student access for the updated knowledge of current innovations and research findings.

Teachers document the records of all the classes, attendance in their respective log books and the same is monitored by the Academic Monitoring Committee (AMC). The departments conduct guest lecturers to widen knowledge in the respective fields and Industrial Visits, MoU with Industries and field trips are also arranged to bridge the gap between academics and industry. Two internal Examinations and one model examinations are conducted each semester and the results of the same are analyzed to assess the students and accordingly remedial, booster classes are provided. After university examinations, Result analysis of all the departments are prepared and future action if any for further improvement is followed. Feedback from the students on teachers are received at the end of each semester and analyzed by the IQAC for any remedial (future) action.

7.2 – Best Practices

7.2.1 – Describe at least two institutional best practices

1. Adoption of the Village C G Pudur Title of the practice 1 is Adoption of C.G.Pudur Village 2. The context that required the initiation of the practice: C.G.Pudur is a nearby village which is inhabited by rustic people. This practice is initiated to educate the rural students of the neighboring locality. By adopting the village, the college takes responsibility of the village and it is understood that the village is given overall care. The college conducts many awareness programs, rallies in order to educate the villagers. Medical Camps are organized to ensure the health of the inhabitants. The school children of the village are given career guidance programmes and Basic English grammar classes. It's vital to educate and ensure that the inhabitants are made aware of the current social and political scenario and are able to cope up with it.3. Objectives of the Practice: To provide adequate awareness on education policies, to impart knowledge on mental and physical health, hygiene and epidemic diseases.4. The Practice: The practice aims at developing the village as a whole in all the areas such as mental and physical health, education, employment and general knowledge. To focus on each and every aspect, the college frames many programme schedules which includes the name and type of the programmes to be conducted by each and every department and the different clubs and committees of the college. 6. Impact of the Practice: The students and staff members of the college visit the village regularly. With the help of various programmes like street plays, awareness campaigns, rallies, lectures, poster presentations etc by our students, the villagers gain knowledge on various mental and physical health care issues, education and government policies needed for them to lead a peaceful life. Children started joining schools, the school children were able to communicate in English. The villagers started paying more attention to their health and health related habits. The impact is also felt on the students who are directly related to the activities, as we indulge them in community services and societal wellbeing. 1. Title of the practice 2 Introduction of Job Oriented Courses. Job Oriented Courses are planned and provided to the students of all departments on the basis of employability requirements along with the curriculum. All the students are made to enroll in any one of the course depending upon their interest. All the first year UG students are given Communicative English Classes. Finishing School classes are conducted for all the final year UG students. Finishing School classes focus on Etiquette, Power of Positive Thinking, Interview Skills, Numerical Aptitude, Personal Grooming, Group Discussion, Public Speaking, Stress Release Techniques, Body Language, Leadership Skills, Presentation Skills and Art of Writing. Apart from subject oriented courses, other courses such as Jewelry making, painting, jam preparation etc are also provided. Some of the courses such as TALLY, J2EE, and ANDROID are provided with Industry - institution tie ups, jewelry making, painting are run through experts from the respective fields. The students develop additional skills through this practice and find themselves sound to acquire employment.
